Headline:
Snow showers for the east, drier in the west.

Today:
Snow showers, heavy at times, will continue throughout the day, mainly in the east. A few of these will push further west but generally drier and brighter here. Feeling very cold but with easing easterly winds. Maximum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Tonight:
The snow showers will become lighter and less frequent through this evening, but continuing to feed into the east. Widespread overnight frost. Minimum temperature -6 deg C (21 deg F).

Wednesday:
It will be largely dry and sunny in the west but scattered snow showers will remain in the east throughout the day. Largely dry and clear by evening. Maximum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Largely dry and fine over the coming days, but clouding over on Saturday with the chance of snow pushing in from the west. Staying cold with winds picking up.
